

Revised
Bill
Millers

Separate
owners
from millwrights
millers etc

---

and vice president of the ke City. This is an insti-rd. Men high in official their tasks efficiently and er the intermountain coun-training and their encour-an Telegraph College.
Montana, but in 1911 was and the president of the no at the age of fourteen aphy, in a few years had responsibilities, and during l training for the Govern-telegraphers and historical commercial and wireless er, has been through the which he has been able to
of the highest usefulness. ool is over 100 and these ted States. The graduates officials and other corporagiven more than a welcome emphasis of training is to telegraphy, either commer-includes courses in type-during the last few years d and instruction provided cient wireless operators. esident and manager, was his father, James J. James, some years in the railroad Malad, Idaho. He married n Wootley, was prominent ty.
Malad, after which he had State Agricultural College ing was acquired with the in 1924 he enrolled as one graph College at Salt Lake afterward qualified for a Pacific Railway Company. to return to the college and ent.